

Shonna Sam, AICP

Shonna Sam is a registered planner with 20 years of environmental planning experience supporting federal, state, and local agencies with NEPA documentation, land use planning, permitting, mapping, and the preparation of Hazard Mitigation Grant Program applications. Ms. Sam has a strong understanding of in procedural and regulatory requirements of the FHWA, FTA, State DOT's, Central Federal Lands Highway Division, and FEMA for NEPA analysis.

Ms. Sam excels in identifying, organizing, analyzing, and presenting environmental data efficiently to support alternatives evaluation and stakeholder engagement for transportation projects. Her areas of expertise NEPA documentation, Title VI and environmental justice analysis, Section 106 and Section 4(f) evaluations, cumulative and indirect effects studies, permitting, and geographic information systems (GIS). She has assisted a variety of projects in the role of task lead, primary author, documentation specialist, quality control, and project management.

She has also worked for several agencies located throughout the Western U.S including Colorado Department of Transportation, the Regional Transportation District, Nevada, Utah, Nebraska, and Wyoming.

Notable projects include I-70 Floyd Hill to Veterans Memorial Tunnels, I-70 Mountain Corridor Wildlife Crossings at Genesee and Empire, Powers Blvd-Airport Road Interchange, and Central Federal Lands Joe Tank Road and Sasabe to Three Points.